

FEW DEALINGS IN SUGARS AT LOWEST LEVEL

Actual Business Done. During December Decline Small in Volume, Says Rionda

Cuban sellers would not sacrifice their holdings at the temporary low prices prevailing for sugars during the week prior to December 17, according to the market letter issued on that date by the Czarukow-Rionda Company of 112 Wall Street, which follows:

"The easier tendency which developed last week and carried the spot quotation down to 4.89c, based on a small sale of immediate shipment Cubas at 4.875c c. f. on 10th, was only of short duration, for notwithstanding almost daily reductions in limits, at no time had offers accumulated to any extent, so that actual business done on the decline was of only comparatively small volume.

"This reluctance on the part of Cuban sellers to sacrifice their holdings is evident from reported sales on 12th, comprising only moderate quantities of prompt clearance at 4.90c c. f. (4.70c), December loading at 4.825c c. f. (4.64c) and January shipment at 4.775c c. f. (4.59c), operators on the other hand having to pay 4.44c c. f. (4.45c) for a cargo of first-half January clearance. For the remaining 6500 bags stored at New York 4.89c delivered was paid on 15th, subsequent limited transactions in December clearance being at 4.75c c. f. (4.77c), on which the spot quotation shows a net decline of 12c per lb. for the week. Total reported sales aggregate only 21,200 tons Cubas and 600 tons Surinams, in which operators participated to a larger extent than refiners. The latter are not at present showing much desire to provide for future requirements, owing to anticipations on the part of several New York firms to shortly close down for the annual overhauling of their plants.

Stocks Down to Nothing.
"Stocks in the hands of importers at United States Atlantic ports are now nil, as against 44,775 tons last year, and combined stocks in United States and Cuba about 100,000 tons below those at corresponding date a year ago, a situation which, in view of the heavier impending demands from foreign sources for Cuban sugars of the early production, makes it quite logical that our market should rule as strong as it does at this time.

"The number of estates now grinding in Cuba is given as 44, compared with 29 and 71 at corresponding date in 1914 and 1913, respectively, but despite the larger production anticipated for the current month, as compared with the 54,676 tons made to end of December last year, a great many planters are encountering considerable difficulty in fulfilling their contracts for shipment this month. It is estimated that 25-30,000 tons of the island's December output will be shipped to Europe, and judging from the number of steamers already declared by United Kingdom and France against purchases on f. o. b. terms, it seems very likely that an additional 40,000 tons Cubas will go to the same destinations during first-half of January, 1916. All of which tends to confirm the belief that no accumulation of stocks in Cuba is apt to occur, at least during the first two months of the campaign.

"There has been considerable foreign inquiry during the past week for January-February shipment United States refined sugars, but so far no business has been reported."

FORBES TO REMAIN IN WASHINGTON ON BOND REFUND DEAL

Charles R. Forbes, superintendent of public works, will extend his stay in Washington indefinitely, remaining at the instance of Governor Pinkham to secure the president's approval to the redemption of the $1,750,000 worth of 4-1/2 per cent territorial bonds which the governor and treasurer yesterday decided upon.

Governor Pinkham's cable requested Forbes to remain in the national capitol until he had secured letters, which were mailed him this morning granting him authority to see the president on the matter.

From the present outlook it seems that the territory will be able to float bonds at 4 per cent interest, and for this reason it was decided to have the outstanding 4-1/2 issue refunded. It is more than probable that the next legislature will pass a loan bill for public improvements, and a person having to sell public improvement bonds would be "up against it," so to speak, if he had facing him bonds which were about to fall due. The new plan would leave a clear field for the sale of any improvement bonds in the future.

HILONIAN MEETS PERIL WHEN DECK LOAD IS SHIFTED

tilate. The crew had to rearrange it while the ship was riding the gale, and until it was in its proper place again everyone on board was worried.

A particularly heavy sea hoisted up a telegraph pole and thick, one of a lot in transit, and crashed it down against a sharp iron angle of the deck, breaking the timber in two as if it were a pipestem. A few of the gasoline drums leaked, the shifting opening their joints.

After the first two days, the Hilonian passed out of the worst of the storm zone, and the remainder of the voyage, while rough, was "nothing to speak of," according to Capt. Arthur L. Soule, the steamer's commander.

Big Ammunition Cargo.
Cargo on the steamer crammed her full to the top of the hatches. This morning, cases of small arms ammunition on board, consigned to the army, filled the hatches level to the top. Ammunition brought by the steamer was 2532 cases, the Hilonian was 3250 tons, of which 2000 are for Honolulu. Dynamite on board amounted to 25 tons, and was carried ashore by the stevedores in a most gingerly and highly respectful manner today at Pier 16, where the steamer is docked. Blasting powder is also a considerable part of the high explosives on board.

The steamer's purser, G. F. Roberts, reported that the Hilonian brought all the cargo she could possibly carry, and had to leave between 300 and 400 tons of grain, flour and feed on the docks at Seattle. Original orders were to sail from Seattle direct, but later the Matson offices in San Francisco ordered Capt. Soule to call again at the Bay City before sailing for Honolulu, and pick up more freight. The steamer laid over one day in San Francisco, leaving there Wednesday, December 29.

NEW BOXES HERE BUT LOCKS ARE DELAYED

Because the postoffice department in Washington failed to place the protective locks on 24 new letter mail street boxes when it shipped them here, the boxes cannot be put into use until the locks arrive.

The boxes are perfectly good but as they have no locks, would hardly do for use, as anyone could open them and extract letters any time they wanted to.

Postmaster William F. Young counted over the boxes at the postoffice this morning and said he hopes the locks for them will arrive on the next steamer.

JUDGE DOLE WILL TALK ON MILITARY SERVICE

"The Law of Military Service" will be the subject of the lecture by Judge Sanford B. Dole at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. This opens the series of lectures on military matters which will deal with different phases of military discipline and service.

Judge Dole will discuss some of the legal phases connected with service in the army and will talk on preparedness. He will point out the measures which are granted by the constitution to the state, providing for the establishment of an army. The lecture will be held in Cooke hall at 8 o'clock and is open to members of the association and their friends on presentation of tickets which may be procured at the association office.

MAY FIND HENRIKSEN THROUGH LOCAL FAMILY

"I have hopes of locating Martin Henriksen," said Norwegian Consul Vetlesen today, referring to the sailor whose whereabouts are asked by a nephew who has written from Christiania. Henriksen at once time resided at 11-13 Clay street, San Francisco, but has not been heard from since 1894. If living he would be more than 70 years old. The consul is now in touch with the Honolulu family of the same name and hopes to trace a relationship which may result in locating the missing man.

NAME WINNER OF DOT CONTEST AT 11 ON SATURDAY

Late Rush of Entries for Star-Bulletin Prize Delays Making of Award

Promptly at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, January 8, at the Star-Bulletin business office on Alakea street, the name of the lucky person winning the Star-Bulletin's dot-counting contest will be announced and the prize, a handsome $35 Sonora phonograph, will be awarded.

Because of the rush of last-minute counts, it was not possible to announce the winner today, as had been planned. The later date has been made necessary because of the large number of persons sending in their count almost at the hour the contest was to close.

Several hundred Honoluluans are in the contest, and interest is keen.

ANTI-PINKHAM BOURBONS RENEW VIGOROUS ATTACK

Among the Republicans whose appointments the governor is criticized for making are W. M. Giffard, president of the board of agriculture and forestry, and M. M. Johnson, board of immigration, and he is criticized for allowing public funds to be used to employ R. W. Breckons, Republican, as special assistant attorney-general. His indorsement of various judges for re-appointment and of appointments to other judicial positions is hotly criticized and at various times in the pamphlet recur the charge that he favors men identified with the sugar interests.

The pamphlet is signed by M. C. Pacheco, chairman of the Democratic territorial central committee. Mr. Pacheco said today that the pamphlet spoke not only for him but for the central committee as a whole.

"In view of the busy days in Washington, what with the foreign situation and the approaching national campaign, we do not expect any action on this criticism of the governor," he said. "The administration has other things more pressing. But we propose to continue the criticism if acts of the governor deserve condemnation. We are not out merely to 'knock' him but to uphold the principles of democracy, which we claim these acts violated."

"Our position is well known in Washington as every member of each house has now received one of these pamphlets."

MORNING ON 'CHANGE

Most of the stocks traded in during the last 24 hours show declines of from 1-8 to 50 cents a share. Oahu Sugar is down one-quarter, Waialua sold down from $27.50 to $27, Olua is down one-eighth, Honokaa selling down one-half, and offered at the low figure, and bidding seemed listless. This morning at the session a block of $6000 San Carlos 6s sold at $100. There is no record on the stock sheet of previous sales of this Philippine security.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR, THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a Moist Cloth Through Hair and Double its Beauty at Once

Save Your Hair! Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out

Immediate?—Yes! Certain—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful. You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will just get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.—Adv.
